

CYRUS, DAVID A.

David Cyrus of Werribee, Australia, passed away June 2, 2014. He was born August 1, 1955 in Hinton, WV to Al and Janet (Surbaugh) Cyrus. His family moved to Michigan when he was young and he graduated from Ypsilanti High School in 1973. Dave married Pamela Denton in 1973, and they traveled to Australia for Pam's teaching job. Their daughter Michelle was born there. Upon return to the U.S., Dave obtained a teaching degree from the University of Michigan. Dave went back to Australia in the 80's to teach and met and married his second wife, Sandy. Their son Jonathan was born there. He returned to the US and started a business with partners, Enmark Systems. He spent the last 40 years between the U.S. and his beloved Australia. He is survived by his mother Janet of Ypsilanti, daughter Michelle (Tracy) Kroft of Nashville, TN; son Jonathan of Australia; brothers, James (Lisa) and Tim (Amy); and sister, Jeannie (Mike) Armstrong. He will be especially missed by his two devoted nieces, Olivia and Audrey, and his very special friend Anna Bethune. He was preceded in death by his father in 2008 and one brother, Stan, in February 2014. A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Published in Ann Arbor News from June 6 to June 8, 2014